

Home Education or School at Home

Text 55444, type "Faith and Family" when prompted, enter email address for the Family Newsletter.

1. Introduce our Family, and what opened our eyes to home education

Better Late Than Early '75, School Can Wait '79, Home Grown Kids '81, Home Spun Schools '81

2. Little wooden desks, the alphabet, and a flag!

3. School at Home or Home Education, which is a lifestyle of learning on a schedule that meets your family's need. Develop the special flavor of your family.

4. Advantages of Tutoring—Assess, Move at their pace.

YOU ARE NEVER BEHIND

5. Real Life Preparation

Multi-generational, healthy socialization

6. Am I properly equipped?

Yes! nheri.org, National Home Education Research Institute

7. Teacher Development "While we teach, we learn." Seneca the Younger, 4 B.C.

Tailor the education to the uniqueness of your child. Be flexible and adaptable.

8. Character Development: Honesty—Integrity—Diligence

Soft skills and hard skills

9. Individual Education Program, I. E. P.

Encourage them to pursue their individual interests.

Laura and <https://www.midogtours.com>

10. What About Special Needs? spedhomeschool.com

Find help, perhaps an assessment, then apply in a loving atmosphere.

11 Recorder

12. God is on Your Team, Gerbils!

Free newsletter, podcasts, PDFs of books, Hymns, at www.buildingfaithfamilies.org

A video of a similar talk is available here: buildingfaithfamilies.org/category/2020-seminars/